

NJ's Do Not Call laws work! One major way telemarketers get your number is by mining their databases of past customers.

If I wanted to do business with that company again, I will contact them myself.